

MARCH 2016

Broome County admissions to crisis, inpatient, outpatient, & residential treatment facilities by primary substance type:

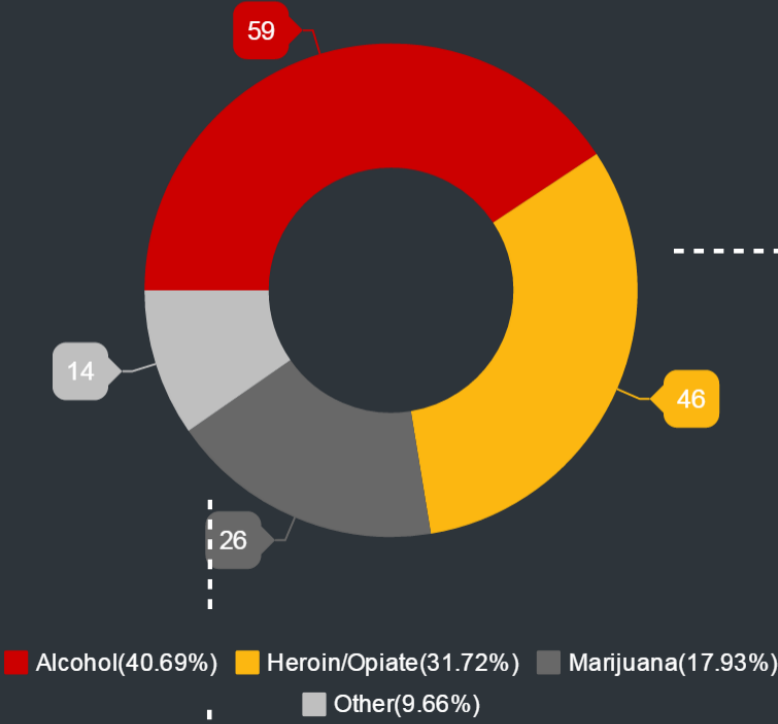

Crisis Admissions (69)

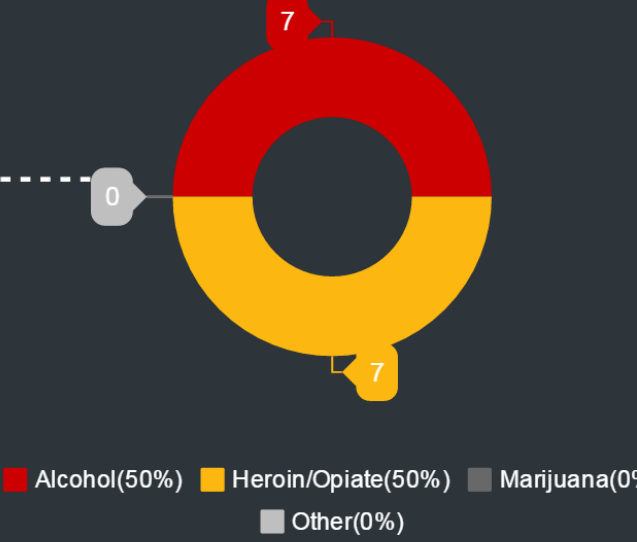

Inpatient Admissions (33)

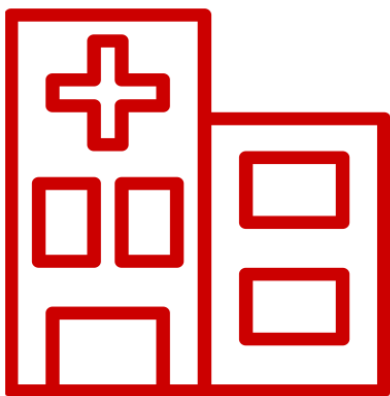

Outpatient Admissions (145)

Residential Admissions (14)

261 total admissions to Broome County treatment programs in March 2016

- ✓ 102 (39%) of clients identified alcohol as their primary substance upon admission
- ✓ 102 (39%) identified heroin/opiates as their primary substance upon admission
- ✓ 32 (12%) of clients identified marijuana as their primary substance upon admission

SOURCES: NYS OASAS LGU/County Admission Item Statistics Report - March 2016

This infographic was brought to you by: Broome Opioid Abuse Council